Got freight? Mark Anderson does! Thousands of containers every year. Come to this meeting to learn what this big exporter is predicting for the coming year, what they look for in carrier partners and his thoughts on the need for efficient transportation corridors to the ports of Seattle and Tacoma. And why not invite a guest or two, or maybe even reserve a table of eight. They will thank you for it!

Get Involved With Your Club! 2010 President Dave Harmon invites you to get active in the Club. First, come to the meetings and events. They're a great place to network for business and career connections. You can also help with programs, promoting the Club to new members, social events, the Golf Tournament and in many other ways. Whether for one time, or on an ongoing basis, it's good for the Club and it will be good for you! Call Dave at 425-778-8730, drop him a line at davehh57@hotmail.com or catch him at the next meeting. He's waiting to hear from you. Thanks!

Place Your Ad in the 2010 Directory! For as little as $75, you can promote your company and support the Club by placing your ad in the new directory. The ad order forms may be found on the TCS website, or call Gordon Neumiller at 206 232 1911 and he'll mail one to you! The ad deadline is the end of this month. Thanks to Stephanie Kang of US Lines for heading up this year's directory!

Thanks to John White of the Washington State Dept. of Transportation for the Viaduct update at the Feb. 3rd meeting! It was another good crowd, proving once again that good things happen at TCS meetings, so attend regularly, and bring a guest. They'll thank you for it!

Congratulations to Ralph Staehli on his receiving one of only three Lifetime Achievement Awards the Club has presented. (The others were Andy Anderson and Frank Elliott) Tom's wife and son and many of his friends were on hand for the big day. See the TCS website for photos.
